VOLUME LXVI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 13, 1865.

NUMBER 84.

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY

EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.

OFFICE—No. 104 King street, over
Stone's (formerly French's) Book Store.

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

Frank a. of Washington, has received a beautiful set of harness for carriage horses, valued at three thousand dollars, to be presented to Mrs. Lincoln on behalf of a few gentlemen who have subscribed for the same.

The amount of currency issued to national banks during the week ending April 8, from the Bureau of Currency, was $2,889,330. The total amount issued is $114,524,000.

Five new national banks went into operation yesterday in different parts of the country. Their aggregate capital is $800,000.

The ship Black Prince, from San Francisco, bound to Boston, is supposed to have foundered at sea, on the 16th of February, with all on board.

C. Captain John Yates Beall, who was hanged on Governor's Island, New York, on the 24th ult., was, on the father's side, descended from Rob Roy, whose history is so well known to the readers of Sir Walter Scott's novels; on the mother's side he claimed direct descent from the great border chieftain, "Belted Will."

The Richmond Whig states that the wife of Gen. Robert E. Lee, is lying dangerously ill in Richmond.

The Richmond Whig says that over a thousand workmen are engaged in repairing the Richmond and Fredericksburg railroad, and it is expected that the trains will be running through to Aquia Creek in less than three weeks. The Central Railroad is also being repaired toward Staunton.

The Emperor of the French, at the last dates, was said to be indisposed.

In the U. S. Navy there are now 683 vessels of war, sixty of which are ironclads.

An expeditionary force which was sent out from Norfolk, Va., on the 1st inst., for the purpose of reaching Weldon, N. C., succeeded in destroying a portion of the Sea-oard and Roanoke Railroad, but whilst thus engaged the troops were attacked by about six hundred Confederates. The latter were finally repulsed after a severe engagement, but the Federal troops concluded to advance no further, and returned to Norfolk.

Advices from the army about Mobile, Ala., up to the 4th instant, represent the siege of the Spanish Fort as progressing favorably, and that the communication between it and the city has been cut off by a battery established above the fort.

Since the occupation of Richmond, the Federal authorities have acted with scrupulous regard for the feelings of Mrs. Gen. Lee. At first a colored guard was placed in front of the house on Franklin street, but upon it being represented that the exhibition was, perhaps, an insult to the lady of the mansion, the colored guard was withdrawn and a white guard substituted.

The Philadelphia Ledger, referring to the proposed celebrations in that and other cities, in honor of the recent Union victories, which have been fixed for different days, remarks:—"As peace seems to be so near at hand, it probably would be as well to postpone any celebration till that event is officially proclaimed."
